Photographic Design III and IV are laboratory classes which continue the study of photography through the 35mm format camera. Students will learn how to develop the black and white 35mm negatives in the darkroom. Students will expand on darkroom developing and printing techniques. In Photo IV, students will have the option to shoot in a digital format with a DSLR camera, while still utilizing the cameras' manual settings. While taking pictures, students will concentrate on composition, the elements of art and the principles of design, as well as conceptualization of ideas in the photographic medium. Art production in photography is emphasized, although its history is also explored. Students will also develop the skills for making aesthetic judgments about photography based on the process of art criticism.

Objectives:

- MEANING AND CREATIVE THINKING:
1. The student engages in the creative process, finds and solves problems, and pursues open-ended inquiry through the production of artworks. The student develops aesthetic understanding through the examination of his/her own art and the artwork of others (National Standards 1 & 2).
- CONTEXTUAL UNDERSTANDING:
2. The student understands art in relation to history and culture (National Standard 4).
- PRODUCTION:
3. The student creates artwork by applying media, techniques, and processes to formulate and express his/her ideas and conceptual understanding (National Standard 1).
- ASSESSMENT AND REFLECTION:
4. The student critiques works of art, reflecting upon and assessing the characteristics and merits of his or her work and the artwork of others (National Standard 5).

Writing for Excellence: The Language Arts Vertical Team, a committee of Fulton County Language Arts teachers, has developed guidelines to help our students achieve excellence in communication. The vertical team promotes active communication among teachers to ensure seamless instruction as students progress through grades 5-12. A main objective is effective student writing in all content areas. The following are basic writing standards: complete sentences, appropriate punctuation, capitalization, formal spelling and legibility. Clear written communication is necessary for academic and professional success; therefore, our ultimate goal is to promote writing excellence.

Recovery Policy

1. Recovery is for students who, despite a conscientious effort and communication with their teachers, have failed to demonstrate satisfactory understanding of course standards. It is not for the student who has been failing for many weeks and then wishes to recover during the final days of the course. Opportunities for students to recover from a 74 or below cumulative average will be provided when all work required to date has been completed and the student has demonstrated a legitimate effort to meet all course requirements. Students who have not attempted to complete all course requirements are not eligible for recovery.
2. Students may initiate recovery on major assessments starting with the second major assessment of the semester as long as they have made a legitimate effort to meet all course requirements including attendance. Unexcused absences may prevent this opportunity.
3. So that students stay focused on the content at hand and don't become overwhelmed and fall too far behind, they must initiate recovery on a major assessment within five school days of being informed of the grade on that assessment. Recovery work must be completed within ten school days prior to the end of the semester. The nature and type of recovery assignment is given at the discretion of the teacher.

*Grading guidelines for recovery assignments will vary by department. It is the responsibility of the student to fully understand the grading guidelines/highest possible score for completed recovery work.***

Honor Code:

Cheating has been defined as giving or receiving information relating to a gradable experience including the use of sources other than those specifically approved by the teacher. Plagiarism and the related act of allowing another student to use one's work are not to be considered inconsequential pranks. Such acts involve serious moral implications; they constitute lying and stealing. They are unjust to teachers who spend valuable time evaluating the paper. They are ultimately harmful to the student committing the act, who is deliberately undermining his/her integrity, destroying his/her reputation, and breaking the trust that must exist between a student and teacher. An honor code violation results in a zero on the assignment, no opportunity to make up the work, and disciplinary action. For the complete honor code policy, visit the Student Handbook on www.northviewhigh.com.

TECHNOLOGY POLICY:

Northview computers are only for school research and projects. The Internet may not be used for personal reasons. Any unauthorized use of the internet will be grounds for disciplinary and/or legal action as well as loss of Internet privileges. Attempts to log into the internet using another person's password, falsely posing as a school system administrator, or other security violations are grounds for termination of privileges and disciplinary measures. Computer vandalism (including food/drink in a lab) is prohibited and will result in immediate termination of Internet and computer access as well as appropriate disciplinary action. Violators are subject to criminal prosecution. For the complete technology policy, visit Student Handbook on www.northviewhigh.com.

It is a violation of the above policy

- to download or install any executable programs (such as games, MP3 players, video players, chat programs, FTP programs, music or video sharing programs, etc.) to a school computer, or on to any student's share folder (Z drive).
- to store any files (documents, pictures, videos, etc.) on any student's share folder (Z drive) that are not directly used in an assignment or teacher directed work; no personal documents, pictures, music videos or other files.
